1. Thirty-one foreign delegates attended the General Assembly, including two from Yugoslavia:

- a. Vlastav Olszak, Professor of Mechanics at the University of Warsaw, specializing in photoelasticity. He spoke excellent English. It was apparent that he held some government position.
- b. Michal Lunc, who spoke no English and who was extremely quiet during the Conference. It was apparent, however, that he was scientifically qualified to represent Yugoslavia.

2. Other delegates were:

- a. Netherlands: W. T. Koiler, representing the International Committee for the Congresses of Applied Mechanics.
- b. UK: Professor G. Temple
R. V. Southwell
- c. Norway: Professor H. Solberg
- d. Italy: Professor G. Colonnetti
- e. Belgium: L. Baes
A. Coppenis
F. H. van den Dungen
- f. Sweden: Professor F. K. G. Odqvist
W. Weipull
